

ASSOCHAM a Knowledge Chamber, represents the interests of industries. Interfaces with the Government on Policy Issues, interacts with international counterpart organisations. ASSOCHAM has a base of nearly more than 4,50,000 lakh direct and indirect members which includes all categories of industries and SMEs.

We are pleased to inform that there is an opening in the Chamber for Research Executives in different disciplines like Finance, Banking & Insurance, International Trade, Economics etc.

Responsibilities

- Good knowledge on MS Office tools like Word, PowerPoint and Excel;
- Knowledge of statistical and analytical tools like SPSS
- Good knowledge of Macro-economic fundamentals, data interpretation, analyze results using statistical techniques
- Develop and implement databases, data collection systems, data analytics
- Perform industry specific research study.
- Evaluate, analyze, and structure the information for use in various deliberations such as conferences, workshops, roundtables etc.

After completion of training the candidate shall be considered for placement in a particular department at a suitable level. Over the period, excellent opportunities will be provided to interact with the policy makers.

We invite CVs of competent candidates for consideration.

Kindly send your CV at :
hr@assochem.com

